

Summation of Hizb ut-Tahrir's Execution Assistant
By Bo Perrin

No, the execution assistant is not in charge of executions. Instead he is in charge of making sure the Caliphate's desires are executed both internally and externally. (Article 48) This office is a go-between the Caliph and the other sections of the government. The execution assistant must be a Muslim. (Article 49) According to Article 50 this assistant is always in contact with the Caliph.
