

Summary of “The Duty of the Muslims Today.”
By Bo Perrin

This section covers pages 35 through 36

The duty of Muslims today is to restore the Khilafah, appoint the Khilaf and remove all the Muslim and non-Muslim rulers who are not ruling according to Shari’ ah. In fact, Hizb proposes, the rulers who are not now ruling according to Shari’ ah do not have to wait until the Khilafah has been installed to remove themselves from power. But Hizb is not optimistic.

Hizb warns that the Ummah cannot afford to become preoccupied with liberating Muslim lands to the detriment of restoring the Khilafah. The Kufr is responsible for invading Muslim lands in order to divert the Ummah from their objective of the restoring the Khilafah. For Islam the restoration of the Khilafah is a matter of obedience for historically Allah permitted the Ummah only three days in which to chose a new Khilafah and the moment the Ummah is a few decades behind and therefore, restoring the Khilafah is more important than the restoration of Muslim lands which are now under Kufr control.

Hizb claims, again without any evidence, that the Kufr has been able to distract the Ummah by causing her to become engrossed with herself to save herself from herself rather than to pursue restoring the Khilafah. For Hizb, restoring Muslim lands is secondary to carrying the Da’wah to the world. Hence, Hizb concludes that if the Ummah is to struggle against dar al-Kufr at the moment let it be to forward the Da’wah, to restore the Khilafah so that Jihad can be used for “fighting the Kuffar, shedding heir blood and seizing their properties if they refuse to respond to the call of Islam.”

So, America, we have been warned! Islam is a peaceful religion to those who are the faithful, the dhimmi and the dead! Which will you be?
