

The Hizb ut-Tahrir's Constitution is very important and informative. Hizb ut-Tahrir is one of the few pro-terrorist organizations that have the guts to lay out before the public it is wants to assimilate and destroy its goals. This Constitution does just that. The main purpose for the existence of Hizb ut-Tahrir is to usher in the Caliphate, restore society in order to restore the individual Muslim. The Caliphate can be summed up as the state in the person of the Caliph. For the Caliphate-State to operate properly it needs some operational guidelines.

The Draft Constitution has 186 amendments, for a lack of a better term, divided into the General Rules, Ruling System, Khaleefah, Delegated assistant, Executive assistant, Amir of Jihad, Army, Judiciary, Provincial Governors, State Departments, Ummah Assembly, Social System, Economic system and the Education system. The Constitution's purpose is to provide the Khaleefah which includes the Khalif, the Delegated and Executive assistant and the Amir, the tools to reform the Islamic society as a whole to reform the individual Muslim.

The summary will consist of headings in which we will examine each section of Hizb ut-Tahrir's Constitution. The purpose of these summaries is not so much to refute Hizb ut-Tahrir's doctrinal views as it is to expose the kind of world which they would like the West to substitute for our Democratic Republic.
